

BookTrust Partner Survey Competition Terms and Conditions

1. The competition is open to all local authorities and councils in England, Wales or Northern Ireland.
2. Surveys must be completed by 31 March, when the survey is anticipated to close, to be eligible. If BookTrust chooses to extend the survey window, we will conduct the prize draw based on all responses received by 30 April.
3. The winner will be the local authority who returns the highest proportion of survey responses. This will be calculated by dividing the number of survey responses received by the number of delivery pathways in each local authority.
4. There will be one winner, who will be contacted after the closing date. If more than one local authority or council returns the highest proportion of surveys, we will select a winner at random.
5. If a chosen winner does not respond to correspondence within one week, a new winner will be selected.
6. Our decision will be final, and no correspondence will be entered into.
7. The prize will not be transferable.
8. No part of the prize is exchangeable for cash or any other prize.
9. BookTrust will identify an author/illustrator/poet, put the winner in touch with them, and pay their fees up to £250 to deliver a storytelling experience for families. We will arrange contact within 3 months of the survey close date.
10. The winning local authority/council will be responsible for the organisation of their storytelling experience event.
11. The prize is run by BookTrust of No. 1 Aire Street, Leeds, LS1 4PR. However, by entering you acknowledge that your details will be passed on to a third party, solely for the purposes of administering this competition.
12. The in-person or virtual storytelling experience will be arranged directly between the winners and the author/illustrator/poet who will deliver the session at a time and date to suit both parties.
13. Where a third party is supplying a prize, BookTrust accepts no responsibility for inaccuracy of any prize description, and the third party is responsible for prize fulfilment.
14. By entering you are agreeing to the terms and conditions in our privacy statement.
15. BookTrust reserves the right to amend the competition end date at any time.

16. By participating in this competition, you are agreeing to these terms and conditions.
