WHO?

I would recommend this book to people who like non-fiction/fiction and people who find it hard to appreciate themselves, and like general stories about peoples life 😊.

LESSONS? ^{and young adults}

This book teaches scholars ^{and young adults} the importance of loving yourself and the need not to change you!

This books will enhance your creativity and imagenery. This book will teach lesson and is perfect for relaxation times. 😊

ME?

This book represents me because Lara is black, a girl who has annoying & stubborn curly hair and strict parents. She has to believe in herself and change for the right things just like me. 😊
